"My God will supply whatever you need....."

Philippians 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month—be generous with your gifts of time, talent and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.

"We must listen to God, who speaks to us. Having a well-formed conscience doesn't mean we have all the answers to the complex problems in the world, but it does mean that we are sensitive to the needs and struggles of other people."

A Schoenstatt retreat inspired by Father Joseph Kentenich's spirituality will be offered on Saturday, November 4, 2017. Father Kentenich [Servant of God], the founder of the Schoenstatt Movement, inspired people of every walk of life to a deeper encounter with Christ and his mother, Mary. From her Schoenstatt shrines the Blessed Mother educates and forms "everyday saints" who can see God behind all events in life. Our presenters will be Father Francisco Rojas and Sister M. Catherine Ditto. There will be time for prayer, personal reflection, confession, and Holy Mass. The retreat will start at 10:30 a.m. and will end at 7:00 p.m. All are invited to encounter this Marian Servant of God and the mission for the Church which God entrusted to him. The cost is $32 per person and includes lunch, dinner, and a snack. The retreat will be held at Schoenstatt Heights, 5901 Cottage Grove Road, Madison. For more information or to register, please contact the Sisters at (608) 222-7208 or email: schoetatheights@schrsmary.org. The registration deadline is Tuesday, October 31.
