ANNOUNCEMENTS

Altar Server Training

Saturday, November 5th St. Mary's will be hosting a Novus Ordo server training for all current servers and any young men who wish to start serving at the altar. Altar servers should have already received their first communion. The training will begin promptly at 1:00 PM and finish at 3:00 pm on the 5th of November. Please plan to arrive early so we can start on time. We will take this time to practice what the servers already know and teach them jobs they have not done before or are unfamiliar with. Your attendance is important, as this gives the MCs a feel for what jobs the servers are comfortable doing on the altar and which tasks needs improvements. Thank you for all you do to serve Father and the Parish.
